

ROTC SUPPLEMENTAL SERVICE AGREEMENT (INITIAL EDUCATIONAL DELAY)

(TO ROTC CONTRACTS EXECUTED ON AND AFTER 1 JUN 84)

For use of this form, see AR 601-25; the proponent agency is DCS, G-1.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

AUTHORITY: 10 USC 2104; 10 USC 2107, AR 601-25.

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: This is a Supplemental to DA Form 591 (Application for Initial (Educational) Delay from entry on Active Duty). This supplemental is an agreement to accept commission as an officer in the U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) and participate in the USAR. It also establishes the obligation incurred by the officer.

ROUTINE USES: Information is used to establish and record the obligation incurred by the officer. Information provided may be further disclosed to the Department of Veteran's Affairs for benefits purposes. In addition, this form is subject to the proper and necessary routine uses identified in the system of records notice(s) specified in the purpose statement above.

DISCLOSURE: It is Voluntary that individuals applying for an initial educational delay complete the DA Form 591 with this supplemental. Failure to complete the DA Form 591 and this supplemental will make you ineligible for consideration for educational delay.

This information should be carefully studied before acknowledging. Place a check mark in the appropriate box before the active duty statement applicable to your situation. Sign all copies and attach one DA Form 591e to each copy of DA Form 591.

1. In consideration of my request for an educational delay and subject to the conditions listed below, I understand and agree to comply with the following service requirements. Following appointment as a commissioned officer, and upon expiration of my educational delay, I agree to being ordered to active duty or active duty for training as determined by the Department of the Army, and subject to the further orders of the Secretary of the Army. I will serve as a commissioned officer as indicated below:
 - a. Nonscholarship obligation. 2 to 4 year active obligation. A period of 8 years as a commissioned officer to include not less than 2 nor more than 4 consecutive years of active duty. The required period of active duty will be based on the needs of the Army when my delay ends. Upon release from active duty, I will serve the remainder of the 8-year period in the Ready Reserve.
 - b. Scholarship obligation (Enter 2 to 5 years) _____ year active duty obligation. A period of 8 years as a commissioned officer to include a period from 2 to 5 consecutive years of active duty based on receipt of Army scholarship assistance while participating in the ROTC program (10 USC 2107). Upon release from active duty, I will serve the remainder of the 8 year period in the Ready Reserve. (The 5-year active duty obligation is only required from those individuals who received ROTC scholarship benefits for 5 years in order to complete their required undergraduate study.)
2. If I am not required to serve on active duty, I agree to serve on active duty training for the period required to complete a resident officer basic course as determined by the Department of the Army, and subject to further orders of the Secretary of the Army. Upon release from active duty for training, I will serve satisfactorily in the Ready Reserves until the 8th anniversary date of my original appointment, unless sooner discharged by proper authority.
3. I agree and consent to the terms of this agreement. I understand that this supplemental agreement will become invalid if I am accepted as a participant in any other officer procurement program, or appointed in the Regular Army and required to execute a different service agreement.
